I got it today, thank you very much, especially the tabs, and the gov response to the PSR.

It seems to be everything, the only thing I did not verify yet, are the proffer statement from jack's other victims, however, I will check and cd and let you know what file it is and we can supplement the record if need me.

Why thank you E.

I hope you are feeling better, now that the weather is warming up a little.

No worries, just let me know if they respond. Given the interesting "language" of the email response, I am not getting my hopes up.

On another subject, do you know off hand, when the tabs and other documents were sent? As I am almost runing out of time.

Have a good day.

Thank you E, I though so, the response was...

I assume you sent the additional stuff from yesterday too?

thank you so much.
